THE NEXT DAY...
Oh my gosh, where are you kids taking me?
I don't know when I've been out this way.
I'm afraid our place isn't much to see, Ms. Robbins. But it looks like Parker is taking the scenic route.
No, Sara, we're going home.
Well, you should have turned way back there, we're almost in Forest Hills!
Yeah.
Parker, I think you want to turn down that way and double back to get to our neighborhood.
No, I said we were going home.
SOLD
As soon as the movers come, this is where we live.
We closed on it yesterday.

BROOKLYN.
Okay, we're back home.
Are you asleep again, boo-boo? After all that crying in the store!
Oh... oh crap... nngh...
Here, let me. You've got your hands full.
Oh, thank you!
I don't know what I was thinking, getting all these groceries.
Being a mother is a lot to juggle.
Tell me about it. Do you have kids?
No. I don't.

NEWARK, N.J.
Right on time.
Of course. You've got the alarm clock that always works for me.
That better have the rest of my payment.
I didn't pack it, but it sounds like it's all there. The boss sounded grumpy enough handing it off.
Good.
Tell him it's been a pleasure doing business and to leave word for me again if he needs anything else done.
We can give you the federal address he can call Shocker at too.
What?!
Get on the ground!
Screw that. You boys better be ready for some stimulation.

You too, Shocker. You're not the only one who can throw some current!
Fine, bring it on!
ZZZAAAKKRRAAKK!!
Everyone stay back!
Gotcha!
Whoa, they're kicking out a lot of power! Can we help Force?
I got 'im. Taser won't work, obviously, but this'll put him on his ass.

KG-HOOM
VZOOOSH
No worries, Shocker. We've got your back.
It's the Hood's mob!
I like this kid.

We got Force down!
SHEEEEEEEEEE
And you're down too.
My sonics can adjust to any of your bodies, I have complete files on each of you.
But White Fang is saving your boss for last.
Look, lady.
You know how this turned out last time.
